WHY SHOULD I BOOK MY HOTEL THROUGH AIIM and ON DEMAND?

As the organizer of the AIIM and ON DEMAND hotel rooms, we wanted to take a moment of your time to explain the importance of booking your hotel room within the blocks AIIM and ON DEMAND has contracted.

- For the most part, AIIM and ON DEMAND room rates are the lowest offered.
- AIIM and ON DEMAND are measured by its total room nights, not the number of attendees, when selecting future dates for their annual meetings. The rationale is that someone using a hotel room is spending more local dollars than someone who is local and can commute. Those total room nights are tracked through the “Official Room Block” as we don’t really have any other way to know where you are staying if you don’t book with AIIM and ON DEMAND. So, your rooms are important to the event getting the best venues and rates in the cities that we might want to use for future events.
- If you need to add rooms at the last minute, we will help you up to and during the event.

We have contracted with Par Avion who is here to help you with your hotel, car rental and airline accommodations. You can help AIIM and ON DEMAND by booking within the “Official Room Block” that they have reserved on your behalf. It’s a great service and it benefits you and the event. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact show management or Par Avion directly.
